Kenwood Road, Sheffield, S7 1NQ

ABOUT US

Kenwood Hall Hotel is a luxury conference venue, hotel, and spa in Sheffield, nestled within 12 acres of picturesque grounds just a mile from the city centre. Once the residence of Sheffield's Chief Cutler, George Wostenholm, this historic 19th-century property preserves its stunning period features whilst incorporating modern amenities to ensure a seamless business experience. Combining timeless elegance with contemporary convenience, we offer an exceptional setting for events ranging from corporate away days to gala dinners. The hotel features 114 bedrooms, nine well-equipped conference suites, a dedicated conference café and complimentary onsite parking.

WE ARE PLEASED TO PROVIDE A DEDICATED
CONFERENCE AND EVENT TEAM READY TO MAKE YOUR EVENT EFFORTLESS.

MEETING ROOM CAPACITIES

At Kenwood Hall Hotel, we provide versatile event spaces, featuring a range of elegant, light-filled meeting rooms, each with an abundance of natural daylight. Whether you're looking to hold a board meeting with a handful of guests, or a large away day for up to 200, we have a space to accommodate your requirements.

TEAM BUILDING AT KENWOOD HALL

Set within 12 acres of stunning grounds, Mercure Sheffield Kenwood Hall Hotel & Spa offers the perfect venue for outdoor events accommodating up to 1,000 guests.

With the growing popularity of outdoor conferences, the hotel's expansive grounds provide an ideal space for team-building activities such as archery, inflatable assault courses and classic school sports day-style games. Incorporating these activities into your event fosters teamwork, enhances communication, encourages creative thinking, and helps identify leadership qualities within your group.

For those planning a team-building event in Sheffield, Kenwood Hall Hotel has partnered with Goto Events to offer a variety of customisable experiences tailored to your specific needs.

Contact our events team for more information.
